2026 PORTF.

This piece is a visual exploration of modern portrait aesthetics, combining photography, typography and subtle manipulation.

The goal was to create a clean yet striking composition that feels current and timeless, using the transparent typography to add depth without taking away from the subject.

I was inspired by contemporary music and fashion culture, where strong portraits and simple graphic elements create a powerful visual statement.

DETAILS

not your regular portrait

